

Hear the marimba band— the newest thing in music

Hurtado Brothers Royal Marimba Band

Hear this marimba music!

You'll be enthusiastic over it, and you'll understand why people who have heard the other Victor marimba records are calling for "more." These two new selections are presented by the finest marimba organization in the world, the Royal Marimba Band, of Guatemala. These musicians recently won thousands of admirers at the Panama-Pacific Exposition, and have now agreed to make records for the Victor exclusively.

The numbers are two swinging marches, the "Otilia" and "Guatemala-Panama" Marches, and they make an attractive record which seems sure to be enormously popular.

My Dreamy
China Lady

A new song of love in China, rendered by a quartet of male voices. It makes an excellent quartet number and is well sung by the Lyric four.

These are only a few of the beautiful numbers just issued among the

Dr. J. N. Deahl, president of the association is known as "The Great Cogitator." He says that conservatives, not radicals, cause most of the trouble in the world by opposing proper progress.

State Superintendent M. P. Shawkey is busy receiving the congratulations of his friends. He looks fit after a campaign and a strenuous commencement season.

Superintendent Frank L. Burdette is sometimes called "The eagle-eyed." He is giving the teachers a warm welcome to the city from which he has been exiled.

County Superintendent Cook, of McDowell county is the largest and best looking man in the convention.

Miss Edna Arnold of the Weston high school is one of the most popular ladies present.

Superintendent George S. Laidley holds the state record for tenure of office in one position, having served thirty-four years as city superintendent of Charleston.

Superintendent O. G. Wilson, of Fairmont, stepped into the Waldo lobby and some one exclaimed "O! G!"

Superintendent Longenecker of Parkersburg, and Superintendent Knabenhue are both popular, but their names are so hard to spell.

County Superintendent French of Mercer, was recently appointed a member of the state board of education. He "forded" all the way to Clarksburg.

Thomas C. Miller, former state superintendent, and now principal of the Shepherd College normal school, is the youngest old school man present. He is a land mark among the educators.

Miss Ina Barnes of the Glenville normal school is stirring up much interest in folk games and will give a demonstration with a class of her students.

Superintendent Wright, and High School Principal Graham, of Huntington, bring with them the boosting spirit of their city and are telling about their new $400,000 high school building, and are urging the association to come to Huntington next year.

If any one wishes to know the cost of keeping dogs and cats in West Virginia, let him ask Lloyd Tustin, one of the good district supervisors of Wetzel county. He made a "cat and dog survey" of his district.

REWARD OFFERED FOR ELOPING GIRL

The inter-club debate, one of the big events of the term. Tuesday night was the reception given by Mr. and Mrs. H. Roy Waugh to the large graduating class of the normal department. Wednesday evening the college seniors were again given a reception by the Dean and Mrs. T. W. Haught. Thursday evening the Juniors will give the Seniors a banquet. Friday and Saturday evenings the oratorical and declamation contests are to be held at the College Hall.

June Meeting.

The Willing Workers Society of the First Baptist church will hold its June meeting Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Harry Morrison, stop 24, Wilsonburg. A special trolley car will leave the postoffice corner at 2:30 o'clock.

PERSONAL

The Revs. H. R. Hess and W. M. Slaughter have gone to Weston to attend the institute of the East district of the United Brethren church.

A. A. Haggerty was here Thursday from Wilsonburg.

Misses Helen and Grace Fair, of Wallace, are visiting Miss Mary B. Gorman, at her home on Harrison street, Broad Oaks. The Misses Fair will go to Buckhannon Friday to attend the commencement exercises of West Virginia Wesleyan College.

Miss Jennette Alderson, of Summersville, is in the city a guest of Miss Mattie Israel, on Clay street.

Chief of Police Harry L. Brooks has returned from Newark, N. J., where he attended the annual convention of the International Association of Chiefs of Police.

Distressing Case at Carrollton, O., in Which Relatives Run Away with Each Other.

L. G. Stewart, of Carrollton, O., offers a reward of $100 for the arrest and return of Martha Leona Stewart, his daughter, who eloped June 3 with Charles C. Wheatley. He asks that if they be found they be detained and Sheriff George Galbraith, of Carrollton, be notified.

This man Wheatley married Nellie Stewart, April 10, 1916, and eloped June 3, 1916, with her sister, aged 14. The family naturally is prosecuted and has not the funds to properly prosecute the case. The parents are most anxious to discover the whereabouts of the daughter, if that be possible.

The eloping girl's description is as follows:

Age 14 years, height about five feet, weight 105, gray eyes, brown hair, fair complexion, dressed in light gray jacket suit with belt, white waist, white silk hose, black patent leather one-strap pumps, white Panama hat with black band and trimmed in pink forget-me-nots, small gold locket, gold bracelet, small diamond ring on left middle finger, plays piano and sings, and may be found on vaudeville stage.

Wheatley is described as follows: Age 26 years, height about five feet six inches, weight 140 pounds, brown hair, small aquiline brown eyes, small red birthmark on each lower eyelid, mole on left cheek, scar under chin, dressed in blue suit (George Tinslin's name on inside coat pocket), straw hat, purple tie, black button shoes, dragon tattoo on lower right arm, sailor and two snakes on upper arm, Japanese girl on lower right arm inside, carried ladies' gold watch with initial "C" on it. PROCLAMATION

For Half Holiday on the State's Birthday is Issued by Mayor Gordon.

Mayor G. H. Gordon this morning issued the following proclamation, proclaiming a half holiday in the city on June 20, the state's fifty-third birthday:

Whereas on the 20th day of June, 1916, the state of West Virginia will be fifty-three years of age and

Whereas the state is rich in natural resources and

Whereas under the influence of a free people the state's progress has been marvelous.

Therefore, I, George H. Gordon, mayor of the city of Clarksburg, do proclaim the 20th of June, next, from noon onward as a public holiday in order that the people of the city may celebrate the occasion in a fitting manner.

G. H. GORDON, Mayor.

Boys' Corn Clubs on School Work," and the discussion of this topic was led by C. H. Hartley. In closing the afternoon's program, D. L. Haught addressed the superintendents on the "Effect of Girls' Canning Clubs on School Work," and Miss Sadie R. Guseman led the discussion on this subject.

The remainder of the rural school sections program was an address on the subject, "Can the County Teachers' Institute Be Made a Training School," by D. C. Arnold, of Elk Garden. This discussion was led by M. P. Shawkey, of Charleston. Miss Anna Boydston, of Morgantown, addressed the section on the subject "Assisting Teachers to Teach Reading," and the discussion of this topic was led by C. C. Potter, of Morgantown. An address on "Medical Inspection," by C. H. Archer, of Garry, closed the program for the afternoon.

The elementary school section in charge of the chairman, O. A. Watson, met in the high school auditorium and was addressed by W. E. Buckley, of Fairmont; J. F. Marsh, of Charleston; C. S. Crow, of Morgantown, and Miss Ethel McCuskey, of Elm Grove. Mr. Buckley's subject was: "What is the Elementary School Contributing to the Life Preparation of the Child?" Mr. Marsh's topic was "How Should Seventh and Eighth Grade Work Be Modified to Meet the Vocational Needs of Boys and Girls?" Mr. Crow and Mr. Robertson jointly discussed the subject, "Do the Courses Offered in the Summer Schools of the West Virginia University and State Normal Schools Meet the Needs of the Elementary Teachers?" Miss McCuskey's address on "What is a Reasonable and Practical Solution of the Study Period?" closed the program for the afternoon.

The West Virginia Education Association Schoolmasters' dinner will be served in the Waldo hotel from 5:30 to 8 o'clock Thursday afternoon and more than 100 of the members have reserved plates. The menu and program will be as follows:

All join in.

The program for Thursday night to which the public is cordially invited to attend will be as follows:

8:00 P. M.
High school auditorium.
Music—The Walrus and the Carpenter, (Fletcher)—Children's chorus.

Music—solo (selected) Dr. Moore.
Address—The Modern High School as a Layman Sees It—G. M. Alexander, president board of education, Fairmont.

Address—The Philosophy of the Life-Work Motive in Education—W. C. Chambers, dean of the school of education, University of Pittsburgh, Pittsburgh, Pa.

The convention was officially opened at 8 o'clock Wednesday evening when the following program was carried out:

L. L. Friend, of Charleston, retiring president of the association, was presiding officer. Following a musical number rendered by a high school chorus, E. G. Smith, president of the West Virginia Alumni Association, delivered an address of welcome. J. C. Saunders, of Keyser, responded to the address of welcome and the convention was on in full blast.

The president's annual address, by J. N. Deahl, of Morgantown, was next on the program and he discussed "Some Influences That Control in Education." Professor Deahl's address was quite lengthy and dealt entirely upon the education of boys and girls in the high schools and young men and women in the colleges. His address was listened to with rapt attention by all present.

A piano solo by Miss Margaret Holt was next on the program and was very beautifully rendered.

The closing address of the evening's program was delivered by J. L. Coulter, of Morgantown. His subject was "Agricultural Education: Life Work Motive vs. Cultural Motive."

Following Professor Coulter's address the local school authorities held a reception in honor of the visiting teachers on the first floor of the building. It took more than a half hour for all the teachers to be introduced to those in the receiving line.

Miss Anna Dunn was at the head of the line and introduced the teachers to M. P. Shawkey, state superintendent, who was next in line. Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Deahl, the former president of the association; L. L. Friend, state supervisor of high schools; Dean J. L. Coulter, of the West Virginia University.

BOND ISSUE.

There is heavy voting at the special election in Clay district today to decide whether the district shall issue bonds for $300,000 for permanent roads. Friends of the issue say it will carry. There was a great demand upon the county clerk's office for registration blanks, from which it is evident many of the voters had not been registered for the election.
